

American Friends of the Yitzhak Rabin Center Donor Privacy Policy

The American Friends of the Yitzhak Rabin Center (AFYRC) is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. We have developed this privacy policy to ensure our donors that donor information will not be shared with any third party.

What information we collect

The AFYRC uses various information from persons donating to the organization that includes: amount donated, address, telephone number, donor comments and e-mail address. Tax laws in the United States and the State of California require the Center to keep contact information and contribution level of donors on file.

How we use that information

The AFYRC will never publish, sell, trade, rent or share names (unless released for publication), e-mail or mail addresses, or telephone numbers of donors. The AFYRC will use contact information (e-mail, telephone number and address) of donors for these purposes only:

- Distribute receipts for donations
- Thank donors for their donation
- Inform donors about upcoming fundraising and other activities of the Center
- Internal analysis and record keeping
- Reporting to relevant U.S. and State agencies (these reports are not for public inspection)

No Sharing of Personal Information. The American Friends of the Yitzhak Rabin Center will not sell, rent, or lease donor personal information to other organizations. The identity of all our donors will be kept confidential. Donations from persons will not be publicly announced unless authorized by the donor.

Contacting Us. For questions about our donor privacy policy, please email at info@friendsofrabin.org or call (212)616-6161